

about interunido

interunido is the leading office in questions of migration and integration in the region of Langenthal/Oberaargau.

interunido is confessionally and politically independent. The offers are not profit-oriented. Governing body is the association "Förderung der Bildung und Integration im Oberaargau" (BIO). Areas of work are: education, intercultural translation and consulting.

interunido is financially supported by the Cantonal Office of Education, the Office of Migration, the Town of Langenthal, Logis Suisse and others.

The high quality of our German courses is certified by the label "eduQua".

offers

Education

Various courses and informative events for non-German-speakers and interested people or offices.

Broad offer in German courses:

- classes at various levels, allocation of the students according to results of entry-level test
- individual advancement in small groups
- teaching according to individual needs and habits
- German for mother and child (children from 3-5 years, preparation for kindergarten)
- experienced and competent teachers
- inexpensive fees

Projects

Offers about various subjects, e.g.

- early intervention programs for children
- assistance in homework for children
- education
- meeting people, exchange of experience
- living in the neighborhood

Intercultural mediation and translation

- cultural mediators communicate and translate into 13 different languages (only orally)
- translation by telephone in urgent situations
- intercultural projects

Consulting

Information about questions of migration and integration to all interested people and offices.

Topics:

- education and school
- continuing education, language- and integration-courses
- social system and public health service in Switzerland
- addresses of specialized offices and experts
- work
- legal assistance
- intercultural mediation and translation advice in project planning

Call us to make an appointment or send an e-mail (sek@interunido.ch)

interunido
thunstettenstrasse 40
4900 langenthal
tel 062 922 38 30 sek@winterunido.ch

locations

Location of the office and the intensive German classes

Instructions (train station as starting point):

Take bus no. 14 (direction "Dennli") till bus stop "Bahnhof Süd". (Walk to interunido ca. 8 min). We are located in front of factory "Kadi" in a large block settlement (white or blue blocks).

Location of the German courses for mother and child ("MuKi-Deutsch")

Instructions:

Search for the high tower of the Catholic Church. The kindergarten "Talstrasse" is situated in the large school-building in front of the tower, Talstrasse no. 28. On foot, coming from the big gym Kreuzfeld it takes app. 5 min, from the train station 15 min.